

WAKE UP WOMAN, WAKE UP NOW.

Wake up woman; wake up for you
Have gone asleep for far too long.
Woman, wake up!

Look! Your children are being stolen,
they are being sold away to far away lands.
They are being used as soldiers,
they are being murdered.
See! Your little girls are being made prostitutes Ah! They are being prostituted upon for their survival.
Woman, wake up!!

The rights of your children are being violated.
They are warring and killing themselves.
Woman, wake up!!

I know you went into this deep slumber
because the events that unfolded before your very eyes deeply frightened you
and you felt powerless to stop them.
How very wrong you are!
Woman, wake up!!

You allowed others to sideline you through the misuse of their power; strength,
education and through sheer malice.
Woman, wake up!!

But what do you intend to do with the uncommon Gifts of strength, power, determination and intelligence
that God endowed you with?
Woman, wake up!!

Wake up now my sleeping GIANT for unless you wake up there will be no peace
and thusly there will be no world.
Woman, wake up!!

Wake up woman. Exercise your giftedness for the benefit of humankind.
Take a Lesson from Paula D'Arcy.
Wake up other women from far and near
for a positive action.
Woman, wake up!!

Deborah Cubagee with Mary Anne Camello of the Philippines

Reach out with information; Love, understanding and support to all other women of the world for you have a common destiny with them as a mother, a sister, or a daughter.
Woman, wake up!!

Wake up for you are the repository
of life, unity, love and peace.
Hold the hands of other women
and form a ring around the globe.
Breathe the breath of peace, love and understanding over the world.
Now wake up woman,
wake up gently and move!!!

Woman, wake up!!!
Wake up!!! Wake up!!!
